3. Course Rationale

Diploma of Professional Practice (DPP)
UNSW aspires to develop graduates who are rigorous scholars, capable of leadership and professional practice in an international community. The Diploma of Professional Practice (DPP) consists of 48 units of credit and aims to provide students with opportunities to further enhance their capabilities, skills and knowledge to pursue professional, global careers.

Professional Practice 2 (PP2)
Professional Practice 2 provides students of the DPP, who have completed Professional Experience 1 (PE1), with an opportunity for a second work placement in a different organisation, or with a different focus, which will add further value to their career development. Students are encouraged to draw on the lessons, achievements and workplace feedback gained in PE1 and the knowledge and insights from other DPP courses they have completed to maximize benefits gained from this second opportunity in the workplace. Students are required to organise their own second work placement of a minimum of four weeks (full time equivalent, i.e. 140-160 hours) based in Australia or overseas. The workplace may be related to their discipline, a workplace chosen to develop targeted skills, or a not for profit organisation where they can gain relevant skills and an appreciation of community engagement and/or corporate social responsibility.

This course will focus on guiding and supporting students to:

- gain exposure to the world of work through practical experience that will help their career development and improve their graduate recruitment prospects;
- systematically reflect upon and develop their knowledge, skills and capabilities as professional practitioners, team players, future leaders and global citizens;
- observe the leadership and organisational culture of their workplace and relate this to relevant theories.

Students will be supported by to source a work placement for a minimum of four weeks (full time equivalent, i.e. 140-160 hours).

This course will be taken concurrently with students’ undergraduate studies and is facilitated through workshop participation, online learning and work integrated learning activities.

The assessment tasks in PP2 are designed to engage students in active and productive learning. Students will create a portfolio of evidence to showcase what they have learned and how they have developed as professionals during their placement and the course.

Their workplace supervisor will be asked to provide feedback on the student’s ability to demonstrate professionalism, accountability and ethical behaviour in a professional setting.
4. Teaching Strategies

Professional Placement 2 (PP2) is a work integrated learning course with the predominant component comprising of experiential learning through the placement. It uses student-centered and active learning approaches to engage students in their learning through participation in 2 compulsory workshops. The 1st prepares the student for the placement and the 2nd helps integrate their learning after the placement. The assessment tasks have been designed using ‘assessment as learning’ teaching principles.

5. Key Dates

Summary:

Workshop 1: Thursday 25 Feb 2016, 2-4pm
Workshop Topics
- Placement Planning (for students who are yet to secure a placement)
- Goal setting
- Professionalism / placement expectations
- Assessment Tasks

Workshop 2: Thursday 19 May 2016, 2-4pm
Each student delivers a 15 minute presentation on their placement and course experience including 5 minutes question time.

6. Attendance & Participation

Face to face components: Attendance and participation in the 2 workshops are essential components of the learning process. Students who have inadequate attendance (i.e. below 90% of the contact hours) may receive a UF (unsatisfactory fail) for the course.

Students will be expected to have completed at least 80% of their placement hours by Wed 18 May 2016. They must submit a plan outlining how the remaining hours will be completed by the end of the Summer Session.

9. Late Penalty & Special Consideration

Late Penalty:
Late submission of an assessment without prior (i.e. at least 24 hour) written permission from the course convener is NOT acceptable. Five percent of the assessment value will be deducted for each 24 hour cycle where an assessment is late without written permission. For example, if the assessment is worth 30% of the overall course mark, 1.5 marks will be deducted for each 24 hour cycle.

Special Consideration:
UNSW Policy and information on special consideration can be found at: https://my.unsw.edu.au/student/atoz/SpecialConsideration.html. Application for special consideration must be made within 3 working days of the assessment to which it refers.

10. Resources

Readings
(All readings will be made available on Moodle)

Consultation
Your course convener has one designated hour per week for consultation, and may also be available for a one-off consultation outside this time. The consultation time can be used for answering questions that you do not feel comfortable voicing in class or through the online forum. It is the best to email your course convener prior to confirm your appointment.

Career Resources and Support
UNSW Careers and Employment provide a range of resources and services to assist UNSW students with their career development. You can register for individual career advice appointments to speak to a careers consultant in regards to your career development, to obtain feedback on your job application or to practice your interview skills. For more information and to register for an appointment, go to www.careers.unsw.edu.au.

Academic Support
The Learning Centre offers academic skills support to all students enrolled at The University of New South Wales. They assist students adjusting to academic culture and to new approaches to learning and teaching. The Centre also offers a range of learning and language assistance programs through workshops, individual consultations and student self-access materials. Visit www.lc.unsw.edu.au for more information.
11. Plagiarism

The University regards plagiarism as a form of academic misconduct, and has very strict rules regarding plagiarism. For full information regarding policies, penalties and information to help you avoid plagiarism see: http://www.lc.unsw.edu.au/plagiarism/index.html. In brief:

Plagiarism is the presentation of the thoughts or work of another as one's own.* Examples include:

- direct duplication of the thoughts or work of another, including by copying work, or knowingly permitting it to be copied. This includes copying material, ideas or concepts from a book, article, report or other written document (whether published or unpublished), composition, artwork, design, drawing, circuitry, computer program or software, web site, Internet, other electronic resource, or another person's assignment without appropriate acknowledgement;
- paraphrasing another person’s work with very minor changes keeping the meaning, form and/or progression of ideas of the original;
- piecing together sections of the work of others into a new whole;
- presenting an assessment item as independent work when it has been produced in whole or part in collusion with other people, for example, another student or a tutor; and,
- claiming credit for a proportion a work contributed to a group assessment item that is greater than that actually contributed.†

Submitting an assessment item that has already been submitted for academic credit elsewhere may also be considered plagiarism.

The inclusion of the thoughts or work of another with attribution appropriate to the academic discipline does not amount to plagiarism.

Students are reminded of their Rights and Responsibilities in respect of plagiarism, as set out in the University Undergraduate and Postgraduate Handbooks, and are encouraged to seek advice from academic staff whenever necessary to ensure they avoid plagiarism in all its forms.

The Learning Centre website is the central University online resource for staff and student information on plagiarism and academic honesty. It can be located at:

www.lc.unsw.edu.au/plagiarism

The Learning Centre also provides substantial educational written materials, workshops, and tutorials to aid students, for example, in:

- correct referencing practices;
- paraphrasing, summarising, essay writing, and time management;
- appropriate use of, and attribution for, a range of materials including text, images, formulae and concepts.

Individual assistance is available on request from The Learning Centre.

Students are also reminded that careful time management is an important part of study and one of the identified causes of plagiarism is poor time management. Students should allow sufficient time for research, drafting, and the proper referencing of sources in preparing all
