Faculty of Law students must meet the following criteria to be considered for the DPP:

To enrol concurrently in the DPP alongside an LLB/JD program, a student must:

- have completed 24UOC;  and
- be in good standing

Students who wish to enrol in the DPP, alongside their JD or Combined Law degree, need to maintain their ordinary progression of law subjects, so as not to run into difficulties with sequencing. Students are not permitted to overload on the basis of approval to enrol in the DPP, nor is enrolment in the DPP grounds for requesting approval for an exemption from the Law Faculty’s sequencing requirements in terms of pre-requisites. This means that for UG Combined Law students, permission to enrol in DPP courses will ordinarily be confined to Summer Session. Enrolling in multiple degree programs is challenging and students need to be aware that they cannot seek additional concessions, extensions or special consideration on the basis that they have chosen to undertake the DPP.
